

Programming Laboratories

Hardware Equipment:

There are 32 stations in the programming Labs. Each station consists of:

- WYSE Thin Clients

Overview:

Programming lab is a thin client lab. All Computers are connected to Citrix Server. On the thin clients all software application are published and students can access them via their username and password or use a generic account to login. The Citrix server has multiple licenses and students can use USB to store their work.

Courses:

- GEIT 1411: Computer Science I
- GEIT 1412: Computer Science II
- COSC 3421: Data Structures
- COSC 4461: Programming languages

Software Resources:

- Office 2010
- Visual Studio 2008
- Microsoft Visio
- Dreamweaver

Other equipment includes:

- in each lab there one instructors PC and a projector

